Mattapoisett Special Election

3 QUESTIONS PASS-RUBBISH COLLECTION AND SCHOOL REPAIRS - by VIRGINIA MOR

"What do we do now, with no town-operated beach and no recreation program?" asked Executive Secretary Carol Adams of the Board of Selectmen last Tuesday after the results of the election overrides were announced.

Only three of the 15 questions passed when 1492 persons voted out of 3,836 registered voters - 39 percent - at the special election on June 4th.

The collection of rubbish, the third year of a three-year contract for $73,709, passed 905 to 568. Board of Health members stopped in at the selectmen's meeting and expressed satisfaction that these funds were voted. "We're happy with this vote", declared members Daniel Lee, John Bowman, John Field and Agent Dale Barrows.

There were mixed emotions expressed by Mattapoisett School Committee Chairman Peter B. Hodges when the budget operation for $95,828.25 failed by a slim 19 votes - 726 to 745, but the two questions on repairs to Center School and Old Hammondtown School passed. Repair to Center School's roof, tower and clock passed for $106,046, 747 to 719; and Old Hammondtown School's repair for blacktop, drapes and walk-in freezer repairs and Center School's blacktop and blackboards, for a total of $28,000, passed 753 to 719.

Chairman Hodges, who said he was obviously disappointed in the budget operation loss, was not sure what would happen now. "We have to go back and let the administration, in their wisdom, make cuts and hope more money will be forthcoming." He added that there is a glimmer of hope for additional funds. "The cuts we make will be the ones doing the least damage to education. We'll do the best we can. I don't blame the people for voting their pocketbooks when seniors and people who have lost their jobs are being hit hard financially."

The chairman said it is encouraging that repairs will be made to the landmark, historical Center School (1896) and to Old Hammondtown School to keep it in good shape.

The one budget override question for $182,542.03 for Old Rochester Regional failed 645 to 833. Mattapoisett representative to the ORR School Committee, Dr. M.C. Rosenfield said, "This budget is a three town effort, so I really can't say where we're at until Rochester votes at its special election. If we have to cut, it will have to be a significant cut, and we cannot escape without people losing their jobs." He added, "We are still waiting to hear from the state what our funds will be."

All other questions failed:

1) $6,400 for painting exterior of the town hall, 443 to 1032.

2) $9,000 for printing town reports, 365 to 1102. Executive Secretary Adams said state law requires the town to print one town report to be made available to the public.

5) $49,675 for tarring streets and roads, 435 to 1033.

7) $19,919.23 for recreation program salaries and expenses, 630 to 839. Recreation Director John Shockro said he is disappointed on the failure of the budget to pass. "The kids will be the losers." Center School summer crafts program, girls' softball program are among the losers. He said 50 girls have signed up for the softball program and he wasn't sure what will happen; perhaps raise fees. "We've had 250 youngsters involved in the various baseball teams. We will be using 1991 budget funds until June 30 to keep the program going." Mr. Shockro also said the beach programs with no lifeguards, no raft and no swimming lessons will be a loss to the community.

8) $22,883.12 for the bathing beach was a close vote with a 67 difference, 706 to 773. Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta noted the beach was closed two years ago because of lack of funds. With no supervision, there will be no toilet facilities available. Selectmen discussed placing signs at the beach reading, "Swim at your own risk", and "No lifeguard on duty". Town Counsel's opinion will be sought on the town's legal protection with signs.

9) $7,600 town hall copier. It just so happened the copier broke down this evening when people were looking for copies of the election results.

Concerns of Harbor Committee

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
JUNE 4, 1991-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

The Harbor Advisory Committee will be invited to meet with selectmen in an open discussion to iron out some differences and to discuss the future of the committee. At a May 13 Advisory Committee meeting issues of concern were sent to selectmen asking for an established order for the committee.

The committee feels that unless the selectmen were willing to consult and listen to the opinion of the committee, there is no point in having this committee. The committee feels that in the current structure the committee has little influence and is often disregarded by the selectmen and harbormaster.

The committee is comprised of Michael J.

Dahill, Charles R. Soares, Arthur W. McLean, Charles T. Kelley, Clayton L. Hagy, Steven T. Mach, Harbormaster/Wharf Commissioner, and Brian D. Nunes, Natural Resources Officer. William J. Spark recently resigned, saying "The inability of the committee's recommendations to reach fruition creates the situation from which I shall depart."

Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney explained the Harbor Advisory Committee is an offshoot of the former Growth Management Committee to examine problems in the harbor and the wharves and to alert selectmen of present and future concerns. Former Selectman Bernard F. Talty represented the board on the committee; there is no board representative at this time.

Mr. Mahoney said the selectmen wanted to make clear to the committee that the wharves are under the selectmen's control and selectmen make the rules. "We don't want to lose the committee and we want their input," board members stressed. However, the committee is an advisory one and not an action one, Mr. Mahoney noted.

Harbormaster Mach informed selectmen that, in a round-about way, a new space has been found for the new harbormaster's boat. Mr. James Porter has relinquished his space on the west side of Long Wharf in front of the signs. This space has the advantage of easy access for emergencies and it is well protected in high winds, Mr. Mach said. In exchange, Mr. Mach continued, Mr. Porter has agreed to take the space opened up on the west side of Makuch Wharf. The open space left will go to the first person on the transfer waiting list who has a boat that will fit the space. If none is eligible, the next person on the open space waiting list has first choice. Mr. Mach noted it will cost $300. to repair the harbormaster's boat, and the offender will pay the cost.

Selectmen agreed to adopt regulations on unpaid mooring fees but by taking less drastic measures than were recommended by the Harbor Advisory Committee. A third and final notice will be sent to those who haven't paid their mooring fees, with the notification their names will be published. If not paid in 30 days the mooring will be taken out. If there is a boat on the mooring, the mooring will be removed at the end of the season. Mr. Mach noted past due notices have previously been sent out to about 100 boat owners. Something has to be done, Mr. Mach said. "Some people haven't put their boats in this year because of the economy. Once a mooring is pulled, the person will have to wait about 10 years on the waiting list for a new mooring."

The Advisory Committee recommended impounding the boat where the owner had not paid the past due fees within 30 days. Selectmen felt this would be difficult to handle and a drastic step to take.

Selectmen also discussed the old Boston Whaler boat used by the harbormaster, a gift from the Lions' Club. Selectmen had informed the club this board would like to determine where the boat goes.

At the present time the boat is stored at the town barn, Mr. Mach said. He informed the board the police department would like to keep it on a trailer at the police station. Mr. Mach didn't feel this was a good idea because in an emergency it would take too much time to hook it up, take it to the wharf and take about one-half hour to launch it. Mr. Mach added even then the motor might not start. He suggested the boat be kept under his department to maintain and use while the new boat is being repaired.

Selectman Paul E. Lambalot expressed his opinion the town does not need two boats at the wharf. Selectman Mahoney said he was leary of the additional expense of two boats. Even if kept at the police station it will be an expense to the town.

On another matter, selectmen voted to amend the wharf rules and regulations by adopting new parking regulations, effective June 1, 1991. "Some signs will be taken down, some signs need to have the wording changed", said Mr. Mahoney. Mr. Mach commented most people are decent and most know the regulations. All agreed to keep the signs simple. Mr. Lambalot suggested that if there is a problem, the sign can be changed. He said a note could be left on the car as a warning. A small sign on Holmes Wharf will read "open parking"; the central area, open parking, with overnight rules to follow.

In other business, selectmen:

APPOINTED Nancy O'Brien as associate member of the Board of Appeals, term to expire April 30, 1996. Board of Health Agent Dale Barrows noted no complaints have been received about the order mailed out June 3rd. Most people do use barrels, but the one or two using bags create the mess. A Good Buy for the Town

by Virginia Morgan

Who says you can't get much for a dollar these days? That old adage doesn't hold true in Mattapoisett where, recently, the Town purchased for $1.00 a 10-year old bucket truck from Commonwealth Electric Company.

Through the untiring efforts of Fire Alarm Superintendent Paul M. Kelley, arrangements were made to obtain the "cherry picker". When Mr. Kelley did some work for the electric company without a bucket, a company representative made note of it and when a used bucket truck became available Mr. Kelley was notified. Mr. Kelley said the company trades vehicles every 10 years.

"I feel like I've won the million dollar lottery", Mr. Kelley exclaimed. "I've been working for years to get the voters and town fathers to go along with buying the fire department this safety vehicle."

Several years ago, Mr. Kelley tried at town meeting to get approval to purchase a used bucket truck for $500. with no luck. This year he approached the selectmen to place an article in the warrant for town meeting for $40,000 to buy a truck. "This wasn't a good time what with the tough financial condition of the state and town now," Mr. Kelley said.

Mr. Kelley explained that this bucket truck can be used for many other purposes that are high in addition to the 55 miles of wiring in town, with 114 boxes, 51 master boxes and six circuits. "I expect very soon to be working on the flagpole at Center School, and the lights on the town wharves."

The bucket truck will be kept beside the fire station for now until room can be made at the soon-to-be-constructed building at the sanitary landfill. Mr. Kelley transferred equipment and radio from the old truck to the new acquisition with help from Paul Magee.

"Safety is the main objective in having our own bucket truck", said Mr. Kelley. "Paul Magee and myself take our lives in our hands when we climb poles. This bucket truck will sure be a lot safer."

Selectmen Chairman John N. DeCosta, who authorized the $1.00 check, announced the purchase at the May 28 selectmen's meet-

Letters sent to Robert Miller and Kevin Roberts of COMElectric in appreciation of their generous donation, and to Richard Whalon, who was instrumental in obtaining the truck, were signed by members of the Board of Selectmen and by Fire Alarm Superintendent Kelley.

Mural of Town of Marion

A mammoth mural of the Town of Marion depicting everything from the whimsical fire tower on Converse Point to the Lighthouse on Bird Island will be unveiled Friday evening at Sippican Elementary School.

Commissioned by Volunteers at Sippican Elementary (VASE), the mural was painted by Mattapoisett artist Andy Anderson in a primitive style and shows a Marion of old, with steamboats in the harbor and the 19th century ship Mary Celeste, whose crew vanished without a trace in a mystery that has never been solved.

The mural will be hung permanently at the southwest entrance to the school, between the gymnasium and the cafeteria, for students and the public to enjoy for years to come -- but it will also serve now as the centerpiece for a major fund-raising effort for VASE, which sponsors a host of programs for Sippican's pupils.

Prints of the mural will be sold to fill VASE's coffers. Limited edition prints are available now; the signed and numbered 18 by 24 inch prints cost $65. Sales of the prints are expected to be a continuing source of income for VASE.

The fund-raising project has been in VASE's files for more than three years.

Madeline Cooke, coordinator of performing arts for VASE, learned of a similar project in the town of Duxbury at an arts meeting in 1987. With VASE board members Sue Nichols and Jay Crowley, Ms. Cooke investigated that project. At that time, however, the project seemed overly ambitious for a limited number of volunteers. This fall, though, the board decided it needed to prepare for future performing arts events and other enrichment programs such as Science Alive, a nature series, and the project was revived. It was approved in April by the School Committee. board members scouted the region for a suitable artist and found samples of Anderson's work which they liked, said Mrs. Cooke, and interviewed him.

A graduate of Massachusetts College of Art, Mr. Anderson has pursued graduate studies at Southeastern Massachusetts University and the Hall Institute. A marine painter for 30 years, he studied with Marion painter Weston Andrews and taught art at public schools and colleges.

Mr. Anderson proved a joy to work with as well. "He's been such a good sport", said Mrs. Cooke. Throughout the two-month project several board members, children and even canines wandered in and out of Mr. Anderson's studio, set behind his house on Mattapoisett Neck, to view the six by eight foot mural.

The mural will be unveiled at a public reception from 4 to 6 p.m. Friday at Sippican Elementary School. The artist will be on hand to discuss his work. Refreshments will

Letter to the Editor

Each year near graduation time thousands of dollars in scholarships are awarded to deserving young people in our tri-town communities. Civic and fraternal organizations, as well as businesses and churches, have, for many years, supported and maintained funds which support these scholarships.

This year six new scholarships were added to our list, reflecting a heart-warming spirit of support and generosity in these towns.

Thank you everyone! Each spring, as I share pride in our graduates, I also feel a deep sense of appreciation for each person who helps raise funds and choose scholarship recipients.

Mattapoisett Historical Society

A group of enthusiastic volunteers dusted, polished, swept and rearranged the Historical Museum this past week and so all will be ready for the opening of the Museum on July 5th at 1:00 p.m.

This activity brought to mind another year when the following story took place:

"Have you ever played 'museum'?"

"There are three little girls in Mattapoisett who have been doing just that. It all started when one of them went with her grandmother to help dust the Mattapoisett Historical Museum on Clean-up Day. The child was amazed at all the things that were in the museum that were like things in her grandparents' home. So, when she and her grandmother returned home she asked to play 'museum'.

"Out came the doll bed belonging to her great-great grandmother, the button hooks, old bottles, bits of scrimshaw, the enameled kitchen ladle used by her great grandmother, and other sundries and a 'new' historical museum was born."

How about bringing your children to the Mattapoisett Historical Museum to see the exhibit of "WOOD CARVINGS" in July? The boys will probably be interested, but there are some female carvers exhibiting their work also. So come see what "whittling" can turn into...and stay to see all the permanent exhibitions on display.

The Museum is on the corner of Church and Baptist Streets in Mattapoisett and is open Tuesday through Saturday from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m. beginning July 5th.

Tinkham Forest Clean-up

Volunteers are needed to assist in removing the thoughtlessly discarded tires that litter our otherwise lovely forest. Meet us on Park Street, Mattapoisett (near the water tower on North Street) Saturday, June 15th, at 8 a.m. Please dress for poison ivy - work gloves are also advisable. Contact Wes Bowman through the Town Hall or Mel Smith at 758-9783 with questions or concerns. A better world for our children begins in our own backyard.

Recycling Counts!

Do you know that a dripping faucet can waste 200 gallons of water per month? Let's conserve!

NEWSPAPER RECYCLING

The next newspaper recycling date is Saturday, June 22nd, at Mattapoisett's A&P lot, NEWSPAPERS ONLY, should be tied. If you can spare a few minutes we'd be glad to have your help with the newspaper recycling on that day. See you there.

From Old Hammondtown

Thanks to the efforts of Tim Murray, Trevor Francis and Carlo Conzatti, all the cans from the kitchen of Old Hammondtown school have been recycled. The boys collect the cans daily and store them in Miss Aiken's classroom. Every two weeks they bundle them together so that Mr. Francis, Trevor's dad, can transport them to the recycling center at the landfill. This is one more example of how children are becoming environmentally concerned.

Mattapoisett Board of Appeals

Reported by Virginia Morgan

Three special permits were granted recently by the Mattapoisett Board of Appeals.

The Friends Meeting House at 103 Marion Road will be permitted to raze the existing Fellowship Hall (but not the attached carriage bays) and to construct a new 50 foot by 32 foot Fellowship Hall with a kitchen and two handicap-accessible restrooms to be located behind the carriage bay structure, as well as a new septic system. The existing meeting hall and fellowship hall have no toilets or septic system and meeting members and the public still utilize two outhouses.

The application was made by Priscilla Alden Hathaway. The property is in the Rural Residence 30 District and has dimensions of 330 feet by 130 feet and contains 41,250 square feet. The land is owned by the New Bedford Monthly Meeting of Quakers and the structures are owned by the Mattapoisett Friends Meeting House. There are presently four structures on the property.

The property has been used for religious purposes since the early 1800s, well before the adoption of the zoning in 1967. The existing fellowship hall has been in use since the 1920s. Thus, the property is lawfully nonconforming. Presently, the meeting house is used for worship services and the fellowship hall is used for Sunday School, church-related social functions and on occasion as a meeting place for local, civic and social organizations. No change in use is contemplated after construction of the new fellowship hall.

The Appeals Board found that the proposal by providing sanitary facilities and a septic system where none currently exist constitutes an improvement to the neighborhood. Further, the board found that the proposal, while modernizing the facilities of the Friends Meeting House and Fellowship Hall, preserves the character of an historically unique property.

A special permit was granted to Michael Michaud of 7 Crooked Bow Path relating to property at 10 Shaw Street to construct a new dwelling and having setbacks of 45 feet rear, 30 feet southerly side, 38 feet northerly side and not less than 27 feet front. The lot has less than the required area and frontage.

The application relates to the existing structure which was built prior to the adoption of the zoning by-law in 1967. The existing structure has been condemned and is uninhabitable and will be demolished to build the new structure. No one appeared in opposition at the hearing.

The board found that other homes in the applicant's neighborhood are situated on similar-sized lots. The board found that the proposed construction will not be substantially more detrimental than the existing non-conforming structure to the neighborhood.

A third special permit was granted to John D. Langlois, Inc., of 10 Hawthorne Street relating to property located at 62 Fairhaven Road. A petition for a variance was with-

A talk on "Planning a Loving Funeral Service at an Affordable Cost" will be a feature of the annual meeting of the Memorial Society of Southeastern Massachusetts on Thursday, June 13th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Unitarian Memorial Church, 102 Green Street, Fairhaven. Speaker will be the Reverend Robert Thayer, who in addition to being minister of the church is a member of the board of directors of the society.

The subject for the program was chosen after an item in the "Dear Abby" syndicated column about dignified low cost funerals brought in 15,000 requests for information which were received by the approximately 200 Memorial Societies nationwide. 60 of these requests came to the Memorial Society of Southeastern Massachusetts from this area, indicating that whether from peron the full range of VA benefits and services.

TAP was initially begun as a pilot program in May 1990 at 13 military installations serving 22 families in seven states. Additional sites are being phased in gradually, and TAP will be fully implemented by the end of fiscal year 1992 at approximately 230 installations in the United States and Europe. Implementation in Rhode island is anticipated sometime after October of this year.

The VA Regional Office in Providence will provide support at all TAP sites in its jurisdiction at pre-separation and retirement briefings. VA also is providing transition assistance to Reserve and National Guard members who were called to active duty in support of the Persian Gulf War.

the historic character of New Bedford and surrounding towns. Highlights of the 1991 season are the conversion of the 1831 Grinnell Mansion to congregate housing for the elderly, the saving and reconstruction of the 1718 William Hart House in Dartmouth, and Preservation Weekend.

This year's WHALE Auction, Preview Brunch, Artisans' Sale, and Balloon Bonanza will be set amidst the fun and excitement of the fashion outlets of the rehabilitated Howland Mills.

The first donation was a $500.00 gift certificate from Howland Place, which can be used at any of the quality outlets. Another "not your run of the mill" item is a record for any fan of "Tavares", New Bedford's own music sensation. Mr. Ralph Tavares has generously given a Platinum Record, recognizing sales of 1,000,000 copies of "More than a Woman".

New Bedford lovers can bid on a basket arranged by Natalie Teach of Dahlia. It's filled with locally made treasures, scallop shell candies from Cox's, Silmo coffee syrup, a New Bedford T-shirt from Elaine's, a Spinner Publication, Titleist golf balls and more. WHALE is accepting old things and new things. They even arrange for picking up your items. Call 997-1776.

Fees for the "Summer Beach" nature walk are $3. for Lloyd Center members, $5. for non-members and $1. for children under 12. For more information and registration for this fun and educational nature walk contact the Lloyd Center at 990-0505 or stop by 430 Potomska Road in South Dartmouth.

Canoe Mattapoisett River

Join the Lloyd Center on Saturday, June 15th, on an all day canoe trip as we explore the Mattapoisett River. Although the Mattapoisett River can be challenging to the novice, participants can learn canoeing skills or improve on their present skills as we explore one of the most beautiful, winding, freshwater rivers in New England.

The Lloyd Center's education and research staff will investigate and explain the natural history of the Mattapoisett River as you enjoy the outdoors in a small group with experienced leaders.
